

Pentagon Auditorium Directions BH650

The Pentagon Auditorium, Room BH650, is located in the basement at the end of the 6th corridor, near the Pentagon Athletic Center (PAC).

There are many ways to get here, but there are basic instructions that can be picked up from anywhere in the building. These routes begin in the Pentagon Concourse (Due to the ongoing Pentagon Renovation Project, there will be times when one or the other of these routes may not be accessible).

The Shortest Route (outside):

From the Concourse, take the ramp on either end of the Course to the second floor and down the stairs into the center courtyard. Go across the courtyard to the corridor 5/6 entrance. Follow the 6th corridor all the way to the E-Ring (you will pass through 2 sets of glass doors as you cross A & E Drive). At the end of the hallway, you will find elevator 64 and stair 64 (around the corner). Take either to the basement and follow the cork hallway to Pentagon Auditorium at the end of the 6th corridor (you will pass the Pentagon Athletic Center on the right).

The Other Route (inside):

From the Concourse, take the ramp on either end of the Course to the second floor. Follow the A-Ring to the right (the center courtyard will be on your left), or left (the center courtyard will be on your right) around to the corridor 5/6 escalators. Take the escalator (or the elevator behind the women's restroom on the left) down to the 1st floor. Follow the 6th corridor all the way to the E-Ring (you will pass through 2 sets of glass doors as you cross A & E Drive). At the end of the hallway, you will find elevator 64 and stair 64 (around the corner). Take either to the basement and follow the cork hallway to Pentagon Auditorium at the end of the 6th corridor (you will pass the Pentagon Athletic Center on the right).

AMVID Administrative Offices and Auditorium Projection Booth:

- Take stair 64 one floor down on the mezzanine and follow the hallway to AMVID, Room MG652.
